“take up each of you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel,” - Joshua 4:5

The passage from Joshua Chapter 4 places us at the Jordan River as the Children of Israel cross into the Promised Land. It was a day of triumph and victory for a group of people who had wandered the desert for 40 years. They had finally reached their God-given destination. The Israelites had heard of the promises of Canaan, it was to be their new home, a place of freedom, and a land flowing with milk and honey. The life of captivity, torture, and back-breaking work would give way to an easier life for God's people. Just as God wanted them to dwell in their new home, He did not want them to forget Egypt, the slavery, and His deliverance. God wanted His people to forever remember this day, cross the river, occupy their new home, and pass to the generations to come the story of God's deliverance, power, and presence.

The month of May is also a time of remembrance for our country. Memorial Day, the last Monday, is set aside as a day to honor those men and women who have sacrificed their lives for the liberty and freedom we have in America. Freedom comes at a high price and for those who gave their lives, we must never forget the sacrifice that so many have paid that we might live in a free America.

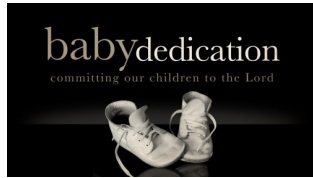

The first Sunday in May is a time of remembrance for the Christian believers in our church. We partake of communion in Remembrance of our Lord, His sacrifice on the cross, and His compassionate love for all people. We must never forget those who died for our freedom in America, and for our freedom from sin through the death, burial, and resurrection of our Savior.

In Christ, Chris
